Andreas Wildi, born 1972, is a medical doctor and an attorney at law.

He advises and represents companies, associations and NGOs in the life sciences and healthcare sector.

His main focus is on reimbursement and pricing as well as regulatory affairs relating to pharmaceuticals and medical devices.

Andreas Wildi studied medicine at the University of Zurich and received his doctorate (Dr. med. / MD). While working part-time as a doctor in a hospital, in international rescue services and assisting / substituting general practitioners, he completed his law studies at the University of St. Gallen HSG (lic. iur. HSG). Before being admitted to the bar, Andreas Wildi was a clerk at a Cantonal Court and a trainee in a recognized Zurich business law firm. From his first position as an attorney at law in a large Zurich business law firm, Andreas Wildi was asked to work for the Swiss Government, where he led the pharmaceutical reimbursement & pricing unit in the Federal Office of Public Health BAG. Andreas Wildi deepened his market access expertise internationally as EMEA market access law director for a large multinational life sciences company. Andreas Wildi has been a partner at Walder Wyss in Zurich and Berne since 2015.

Andreas Wildi works in German, English and French. He is admitted to the bar before all courts in Switzerland and is a guest lecturer in pharmaceutical law at the Law Faculty of the University of Lucerne and at the University of Bern's KPM Center for Public Management.
